

RENCONTRES ÉGÉENNES INTERNATIONALES/
INTERNATIONAL AEGEAN CONFERENCES

15 January 2018

Dear Colleague,

we thank you very much for having accepted our invitation to participate in the

17th INTERNATIONAL AEGEAN CONFERENCE to be held at the University of Udine, Department of Humanities and Cultural Heritage and at the Ca' Foscari University of Venice, Department of Humanities

on 17-21 April 2018

on the topic

MNHMH / MNEME PAST AND MEMORY IN THE AEGEAN BRONZE AGE

and for offering a contribution on that occasion.

We are pleased to announce that practical information is available on the Web page of the conference at <http://mneme-aegeum-17.uniud.it>. As indicated in the preliminary program herewith attached, we have 82 registered papers and 38 posters, with James Wright as the keynote speaker and Jan Driessen as presenter of the endnote. Such a high number of presentations will make it necessary to keep strictly to the time schedule.

For social events during the conference, please have a look at the Web page to see the updates that we will make to it at regular intervals. The speakers' farewell dinner has been planned on Friday, 20 April 2018. A guided tour in the islands of the Venice lagoon will be organised in the afternoon of Saturday, 21 April, after the last session of the conference.

The proceedings of the conference will be published in Aegaeum. Annales liégeoises d'archéologie égéenne. The possibility will be offered to authors to purchase a copy of the volumes at the usual reduced price.

We would be grateful to you for confirming your participation and the title of your paper, as well as the name and affiliation of eventual co-authors, by returning the enclosed final registration form by 15 February 2018, preferably through e-mail, to the address aegaeum17@unive.it (please make copies for eventual co-authors).

Hotel information is available on the MNEME Web site and every participant has to book his/her accommodation directly at the hotels in Venice.

We look forward to welcoming you in Venice and Udine in April 2018.
